

Investigating Project Of Air Mail From Great Britain To Winnipeg

Ottawa.—Possibilities of a two-day air route between Great Britain and central Canada are being canvassed by a group of men interested in aviation and in saving transportation costs. The project is being investigated by a group of men interested in aviation and in saving transportation costs. The project is being investigated by a group of men interested in aviation and in saving transportation costs.

The route would be via Scotland, the Farn Islands, Iceland, Greenland and Hudson Bay to Winnipeg. The project is being investigated by a group of men interested in aviation and in saving transportation costs. The project is being investigated by a group of men interested in aviation and in saving transportation costs.

Federal Election This Year Is Unlikely

Only Chance From Opponents' Mistake. Ottawa, Ont.—With members returning to Ottawa after the Easter recess, the possibility of a general election within the next few months is being actively canvassed. The project is being investigated by a group of men interested in aviation and in saving transportation costs.

It is stated that the project is being investigated by a group of men interested in aviation and in saving transportation costs. The project is being investigated by a group of men interested in aviation and in saving transportation costs. The project is being investigated by a group of men interested in aviation and in saving transportation costs.

Ship Enters Wrong Port

Orders Misled and Seattle Cargo. Vancouver, B.C.—One after another of persons getting into wrong hotel when the ship arrived here, getting into a wrong port. The project is being investigated by a group of men interested in aviation and in saving transportation costs.

Water Tests For Cholera

Cholera Tests For Cholera. Ottawa, Ont.—Tests for cholera are being made in the supply of Chubb's are being made for the Department of Health. The project is being investigated by a group of men interested in aviation and in saving transportation costs.

Received By King George

Canadian Minister To France His Interview At Windsor Castle. London, Eng.—Canadian minister to France, Hon. Phillips, was received by King George at Windsor Castle, where he had a short audience with His Majesty, mostly about Canada.

Parachute Saves Aviator

Plane Crashed From Great Height At Sacramento, Cal. Sacramento, Cal.—Last night, a biplane crashed from a great height at Sacramento, Cal. The project is being investigated by a group of men interested in aviation and in saving transportation costs.

Two Vancouver Teachers Drowned

One Sacrificed Life In Attempt To Save Another. North Vancouver, B.C.—J. A. Hyndman, Vancouver, and E. J. Hyndman, Vancouver, were drowned in a boat accident on the coast of British Columbia. The project is being investigated by a group of men interested in aviation and in saving transportation costs.

To Guide Heavy Airships

Weather Report For 8-100 Mm. Toronto, Ont.—The Great Atlantic trip to Montreal this month, will be guided by weather reports it will receive from the Canadian meteorological bureau's headquarters, Toronto. The project is being investigated by a group of men interested in aviation and in saving transportation costs.

Quarantine District Selected

Ottawa, Ont.—Several rural municipalities in Saskatchewan have been constituted restricted areas or quarantine districts for the reason of the contagious disease act. The project is being investigated by a group of men interested in aviation and in saving transportation costs.

Parachute Saves Aviator

Plane Crashed From Great Height At Sacramento, Cal. Sacramento, Cal.—Last night, a biplane crashed from a great height at Sacramento, Cal. The project is being investigated by a group of men interested in aviation and in saving transportation costs.

C.N.R. To Be Reconstructed

Endorsement Of Reorganization Of Board. Ottawa, Ont.—The reconstruction of the financial structure of the Canadian National Railway will be started from this session of parliament. The project is being investigated by a group of men interested in aviation and in saving transportation costs.

BIG INDUSTRIES MAY LOCATE IN COAST PROVINCE

Vancouver, B.C.—Three major industries are making extensive investigations with the object of establishing in British Columbia, and one of the largest of these is the pulp and paper industry. The project is being investigated by a group of men interested in aviation and in saving transportation costs.

One Day Old, but Lively

Every spring millions of baby chicks go from the British Columbia province to the United States. The project is being investigated by a group of men interested in aviation and in saving transportation costs.

French Mover Expert

King May Appoint. Ottawa, Ont.—The French mover expert, King May, has been appointed to the position of French mover expert. The project is being investigated by a group of men interested in aviation and in saving transportation costs.

Altruistic Native Viceroy

Chief Justice Of High Court Has Been Recommended For Office. London, Eng.—The chief justice of the high court has been recommended for office. The project is being investigated by a group of men interested in aviation and in saving transportation costs.

Aliens Risk Death

Caught By Officers After Crossing Niagara River Above Rapids. Niagara Falls, N.Y.—Crossing the Niagara river above the falls, a group of aliens were caught by officers. The project is being investigated by a group of men interested in aviation and in saving transportation costs.

Canadian Prisons Fireproof

Ottawa, Ont.—"Positively impregnable" was the comment of General Sir John Dill on the fireproofing of Canadian prisons. The project is being investigated by a group of men interested in aviation and in saving transportation costs.

TREATY SIGNED BY DELEGATES OF GREAT POWERS

London, Eng.—The London naval treaty, signed by the delegates of the five powers in June, 1922, and the conference opened by King George V. The project is being investigated by a group of men interested in aviation and in saving transportation costs.

Government To Complete Legislation On Resources Before Considering Budget

Service Starts May Third. Ottawa, Ont.—Legislation dealing with the resources of the country is being completed by the government. The project is being investigated by a group of men interested in aviation and in saving transportation costs.

Noted Soldier Dead

Sir Gordon Gough, Servant King. London, Eng.—Sir Gordon Gough, a noted soldier, has died. The project is being investigated by a group of men interested in aviation and in saving transportation costs.

Conference Of Premiers Indefinitely Postponed

Original Date Was Not Convenient For All Offices. Winnipeg, Man.—Parley of prime ministers, set for Winnipeg, to discuss the situation in the north, has been postponed. The project is being investigated by a group of men interested in aviation and in saving transportation costs.

Coming To Canada

British National Union Sending Delegation To America. London, Eng.—The British National Union, it is announced, is sending a delegation to America. The project is being investigated by a group of men interested in aviation and in saving transportation costs.

Troutine In India Is Becoming More Serious According To Reports

Bombay, India.—British authority is confronted with an increasingly grave situation in India. The project is being investigated by a group of men interested in aviation and in saving transportation costs.

Government To Complete Legislation On Resources Before Considering Budget

Service Starts May Third. Ottawa, Ont.—Legislation dealing with the resources of the country is being completed by the government. The project is being investigated by a group of men interested in aviation and in saving transportation costs.

Noted Soldier Dead

Sir Gordon Gough, Servant King. London, Eng.—Sir Gordon Gough, a noted soldier, has died. The project is being investigated by a group of men interested in aviation and in saving transportation costs.

Conference Of Premiers Indefinitely Postponed

Original Date Was Not Convenient For All Offices. Winnipeg, Man.—Parley of prime ministers, set for Winnipeg, to discuss the situation in the north, has been postponed. The project is being investigated by a group of men interested in aviation and in saving transportation costs.

Coming To Canada

British National Union Sending Delegation To America. London, Eng.—The British National Union, it is announced, is sending a delegation to America. The project is being investigated by a group of men interested in aviation and in saving transportation costs.

Troutine In India Is Becoming More Serious According To Reports

Bombay, India.—British authority is confronted with an increasingly grave situation in India. The project is being investigated by a group of men interested in aviation and in saving transportation costs.

Government To Complete Legislation On Resources Before Considering Budget

Service Starts May Third. Ottawa, Ont.—Legislation dealing with the resources of the country is being completed by the government. The project is being investigated by a group of men interested in aviation and in saving transportation costs.

Noted Soldier Dead

Sir Gordon Gough, Servant King. London, Eng.—Sir Gordon Gough, a noted soldier, has died. The project is being investigated by a group of men interested in aviation and in saving transportation costs.

Conference Of Premiers Indefinitely Postponed

Original Date Was Not Convenient For All Offices. Winnipeg, Man.—Parley of prime ministers, set for Winnipeg, to discuss the situation in the north, has been postponed. The project is being investigated by a group of men interested in aviation and in saving transportation costs.

Coming To Canada

British National Union Sending Delegation To America. London, Eng.—The British National Union, it is announced, is sending a delegation to America. The project is being investigated by a group of men interested in aviation and in saving transportation costs.

Troutine In India Is Becoming More Serious According To Reports

Bombay, India.—British authority is confronted with an increasingly grave situation in India. The project is being investigated by a group of men interested in aviation and in saving transportation costs.

